

A Monte Carlo method to compute the height of an ideal

R. NOTARI

Abstract

In this paper, we prove that it is possible to compute in polynomial time the dimension of a monomial ideal in a polynomial ring, problem which is NP-hard, up to accept a result correct with a specified high probability.