

Implicit PDES with a linear constraint

L. POGGIOLINI

Abstract

We study implicit differential systems with a linear constraint on the gradient variable and we prove the existence of infinitely many Lipschitz continuous solutions. The result is obtained by a density argument in a suitable complete metric space.