

Conditioning and convergence of a quadrature process

S. CUOMO - A. GALLETTI

Abstract

We review classical results concerning convergence of a quadrature process in terms of its condition number. In particular, we give an estimate of discretization error of Newton-Cotes rules and of compound rules in terms of its condition number. Definition of relative condition number is also given.